

EMERGING LEADERS UNITED

Emerging Leaders United is a group of civic-minded early to mid-level career professionals committed to positive change in the Roanoke region.

Members connect to our community and each other through innovative professional development, educational opportunities, leadership training, volunteerism and networking events.

Emerging Leaders United Steering Committee

Hannah Adkins, United Way of Roanoke Valley
Jessica Bookout, United Way of Roanoke Valley
Kimberly Butterfield, Virginia Cooperative Extension -Roanoke
Kyle Butto, United Way of Roanoke Valley
Emily Chase, United Way of Roanoke Valley
Raquel Conn, Hustle/Haven
Amy Dellaverson, Community Volunteer
Brooke Gill, United Way of Roanoke Valley
Joe Habenicht, Truist
Lesley Harrop, Magellan Health

Audreanna Kulian, Wells Fargo
Bethany Lackey, A Tree Planted Counseling
Michael Lawson, SFCS
Autumn Lavering, CHIP of Roanoke Valley
Lisa Linger, Mental Health in Motion
Amanda Nastiuk, West End Center
Brian Powell, Wine Gourmet
Jayna Ratliff, Youth Advocate Program, Inc.
A. Chante Smith, Youth Advocate Program, Inc.
Matthew Thomas, Wells Fargo

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Leadership Training

Learn from local leaders and community board members.

Volunteering

Unique volunteer experiences with our partner organizations.

Networking

A group of like-minded peers creates a tight network looking to move the needle.

Professional Development

Through a partnership with experience, we will offer quarterly events.

United Way of Roanoke Valley

Email us at emergingleaders@uwrv.org if you'd like to get involved with Emerging Leaders United.